Retraction of: Scientific Reports <https://doi.org/10.1038/s41598-025-29942-y>, published online 04 December 2025

The Editors have retracted this Article.

After publication, concerns were raised regarding the use of non-standard vocabulary throughout the Article. An investigation by the Editors further identified multiple instances of irrelevant and misaligned references. The Editors therefore no longer have confidence in the Article.

Muhammad Syafrudin did not explicitly state whether or not they agree with this retraction. None of the remaining Authors have responded to correspondence from the Editors about this retraction.
